José Gudiol Ricart, Director of the Amatller Institute of Spanish Art, Barcelona, Spain, will discuss THE TECHNIQUE OF GOYA THROUGH HIS SKETCHES at The Cleveland Museum of Art Auditorium, Sunday, October 15th at 3:30 p.m.

An architect by education, Ricart's career took him to the University of Barcelona and The Institute of Fine Arts at New York University. He is author of ARS HISPANIAE and has traveled in Europe and North and South America.

In his discussion of Goya, Ricart will present the evolution of Goya's technique and pictorial conception by comparing in chronological order the sketches that the artist produced for the preparation of his most important paintings.

The lecture is open free to the public.
